NATIONAL SPECIALTY UNDERWRITERS OPENS NEW OFFICE IN ATLANTA

Chris Randall, President and CEO of National Specialty Underwriters, Inc. (NSU), announced the opening of a new branch of NSU in Atlanta, Georgia, today. NSU is a program administrator and wholesaler specializing in insurance for the hospitality and healthcare industries, as well as, arranging layered placements for a variety of catastrophic property and casualty excess risks. NSU is headquartered in Bellevue, Washington with other branch offices in Boca Raton, Florida, Poughkeepsie, New York, Chicago, Illinois, and now, Atlanta, Georgia.

“The Atlanta office will initially focus on medical professional liability for the healthcare industry, particularly allied healthcare facilities and non-standard physicians,” said Mr. Randall. “We are pleased to announce the opening, effective immediately, of our new location:

National Specialty Underwriters, Inc.
400 Galleria Parkway, Suite 1500
Atlanta, Georgia 30339
Phone: 678-385-6780
Fax: 678-385-6781

We are also pleased to welcome Chip Wienges, David Haliburton, and Jancey Smith to NSU. Mr. Wienges will focus on production of physician business, Mr. Haliburton on medical facilities, and Ms. Smith will support both in her role as Account Administrator. We will be placing a producer focused on our Hospitality specialty in this office shortly.”

Mr. Randall concluded, “We continue to be excited about the opportunities in hospitality and healthcare and the success we are having. Our five offices give us excellent coverage of the US market and we plan to grow substantially in each location in the years to come.”
