FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The NSU website has been redesigned to be more clear, informative and functional to existing and prospective agents and brokers.

Bellevue, WA (November 19, 2008) – National Specialty Underwriters, Inc. (NSU) is proud to announce the launch of its redesigned website as part of a corporate re-branding initiative. Along with the new look comes a variety of new features. The site has been expanded to add more functionality and provide efficient access to information, tools, and resources.

The Resources section provides industry specific information to help both agents and their clients understand NSU's full range of insurance products and programs. An Application Forms Library and Find My Specialist search tool are new to the website. The site has been designed to load faster and to support search engine optimization (SEO).
